

JOE SEWELL MEMORIAL AWARD

Recognizing Elmore County's Outstanding Christian Athletes and Leaders

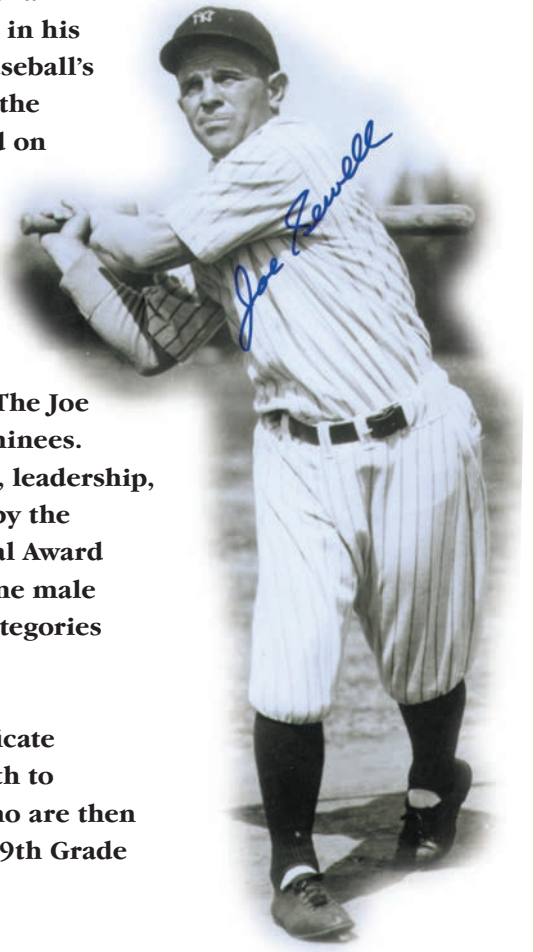

ELEVENTH ANNUAL AWARDS BANQUET MAY 5, 2015

Purpose of the Joe Sewell Memorial Award

The Joe Sewell Memorial Award is named after one of Elmore County's professional athletes who displayed leadership and Christian character both on the field and in his home community of Titus, Joe Sewell. Sewell still owns two of Major League Baseball's records for the single season fewest strikeouts in both 1930 and 1932 as well as the lifetime record of fewest strikeouts during his 14 year career. While he excelled on the field, Sewell was known as a quiet man of character and conviction who gave back to his community as often as he could.

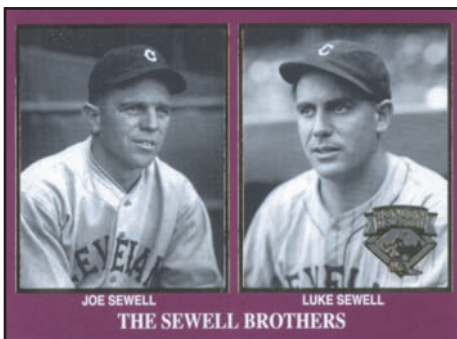

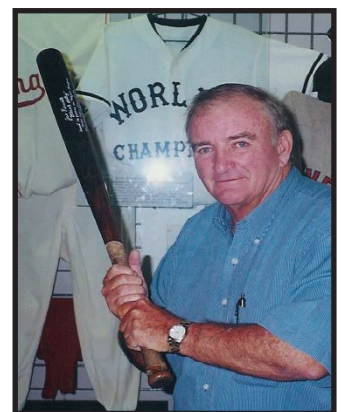

The purpose of the Joe Sewell Memorial Award is to recognize outstanding high school senior athletes who have consistently represented the highest ideals of Christian leadership and emulate the character of Joe Sewell. Each participating high school nominates up to four senior students for this award. The Joe Sewell Memorial Award Board of Directors names Finalists from that list of nominees. Students are then evaluated on the criteria of excellence in athletics, academics, leadership, and church, community, and character, as well as a panel interview conducted by the Board. One male and one female are selected as the overall Joe Sewell Memorial Award recipients. Each of those students receives a $2,500 John Sewell Scholarship. One male and one female are also selected at the Category Winners for each of the four categories listed above, and each is awarded a $750 scholarship.

The Joe Sewell Memorial Award Board of Directors also names 9th Grade Certificate Winners who exemplify the same criteria as the seniors to encourage these youth to continue to excel. High schools are invited to nominate up to four freshmen who are then evaluated by the board prior to being named a Certificate Winner. Many of our 9th Grade Certificate Winners return as Senior Finalists.

John Sewell Scholarship

John Sewell was a cousin of Joe Sewell who was dedicated to the game of baseball and making a positive influence on young people. After a successful business career, John spent almost all of his available time working with young people. He admitted his greatest weakness in life by saying, "I just can't say no to a kid that wants to play ball. I'll do anything to help him." In 2000, John went on a mission to find his cousin's famous bat. When it was found in Birmingham, John had the opportunity to hold it and make the connection to his famous cousin from years past. John continued to coach and be a part of youth baseball until his death in 2003. He was a resident of Coosada, and his wife Billie serves with the Board of Directors.

The John Sewell Scholarships presented to students each year are fully funded by donations from local businesses and individuals who want to encourage excellence in Elmore County students and support the furtherance of their education. The scholarships for students would not be possible without these sponsors' participation each year – for their generosity, we are truly grateful.

Joe Sewell still holds the record for The Hardest Player to Strike-Out in Baseball

Joe Sewell was born in Elmore County's Titus community in 1898. Most die-hard baseball fans know of the legendary Joe Sewell. However he stood in the shadows of some of baseball's giants in the game – Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig and many others. He played for the Cleveland Indians and New York Yankees in his career from 1920 to 1933. Sewell was inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1977 and died in Mobile in 1990.

Joe Sewell still owns two of Major League Baseball's records, records which most fans of the game say will never be broken. He holds the lifetime record for fewest strikeouts at bat during his 14 year pro career – 114 in 7,132 games. Sewell holds the single season record for fewest strikeouts at bat of just three strikeouts in 640 games in 1930 and 1932. A left handed hitter who threw right handed, Sewell was a speedy shortstop who led the American League in fielding twice and putouts and led the league four times in assists.

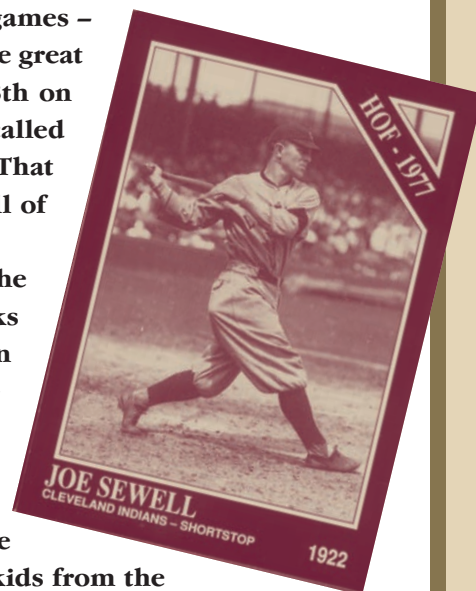

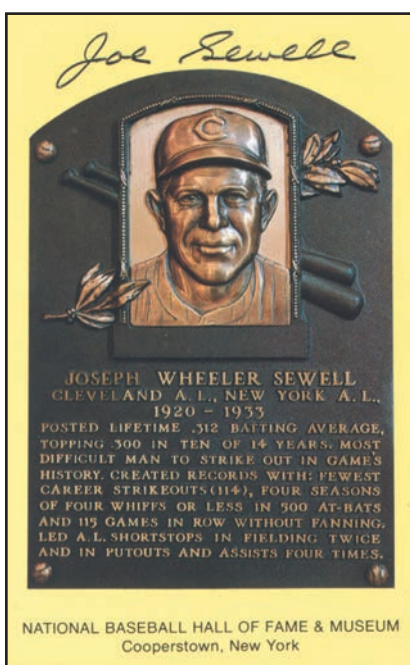

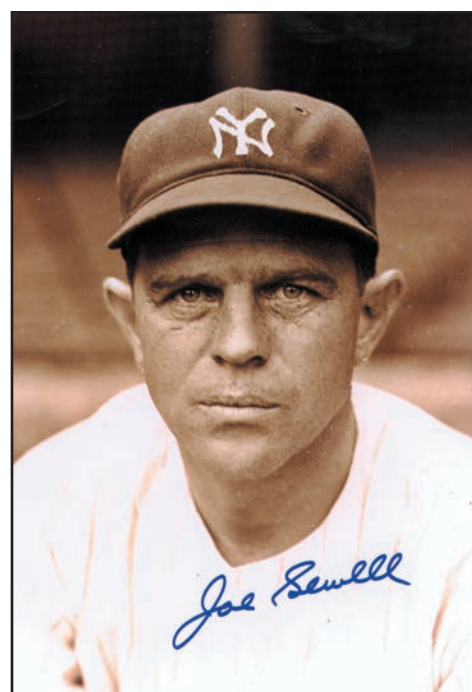

When it came to hitting, no one matched Joe Sewell. Few rookies then and even in today's modern era faced a tougher assignment or more pressure than Sewell did in 1920. While Sewell was playing his first professional season in New Orleans right out of college (Alabama), Cleveland Indians hero Ray Chapman was killed by a Carl Mays' pitch in August. When Chapman's replacement was hurt on Labor Day, the kid from Alabama got the call and was thrust into one of the most heated pennant races ever in the American League. "Little Joe" as he was called (5'7"), proved equal to the task, batting .329 for the rest of the season in helping the Cleveland Indians to their first American League Championship pennant.

From September 13, 1922 to April 30, 1930, he played 1,103 straight games – a major league record at that time, and only surpassed by his teammate, the great Lou Gehrig. He and his younger brother, Luke Sewell, are still ranked 8th on baseball's Most Career Hits list for brothers. Sewell used a 40-ounce bat called

"Black Betsy" during his entire career. That bat rests now in the Alabama Sports Hall of Fame Museum in Birmingham.

But for all of his athletic feats, it is the character of the man that this award seeks to emulate as well. Joe Sewell was known as a quiet man of character and conviction. During the depression, Joe was known on several occasions throughout the years to bring baseballs, gloves and bats to the kids of Elmore County. He loved the game and wanted other poor kids from the South to have a chance to learn the game and the sportsmanship that accompanied it.

After retirement he spent several years coaching for the Yankees. He later was a scout for the Indians. He was head baseball coach at his alma mater, the University of Alabama, for several years leading the Tide to an SEC title in 1968. Alabama's baseball stadium is named for him.

Tonight's Speaker - Ron Dickerson Sr.

Ron Dickerson Sr. is presently a Parks and Recreation consultant for the City of Wetumpka, Alabama.

Ron grew up in western Pennsylvania, 10 miles from where Joe Namath played high school football. He received a football scholarship to Kansas State University, earning All-American honors as a defensive back.

Ron was drafted by the Miami Dolphins in 1972, and was a proud member of the only undefeated NFL team in NFL history.

After his 40 years of coaching college football, both as an assistant and a head coach at such distinguished universities as the University of Louisville, the University of South Carolina, Penn State University, Clemson University, the University of Colorado, the University of Pittsburgh and Temple University, Ron decided it was time for a change of scenery (and weather) and he moved to sunny Montgomery, Alabama, to accept the head coaching position at Alabama State University.

In addition to coaching, Ron is a regular contributor to local, regional and national civic and social organizations. Ron is a former National Board of Trustee Member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, and a Board of Trustees member for the United States Sports Academy. Currently, Ron is a member of the Board of Deacons for New Life Church of God in Christ in Montgomery. Also, he serves Jackson Hospital and the Elmore County Family Resource Center as a member of their Boards of Trustees. Ron is also a former member of the Kiwanis Club in Montgomery and Leadership Montgomery.

Ron published a book entitled, 101 Defensive Back Drills, which describes football coaching techniques to high school coaches around the country. He is currently writing his second book, a biography.

Ron has been married to the former Jeannie Morgan for 45 years. They have two children - a son Ron Jr., an educator in Montgomery, and a daughter, Rashawn Blassingame, an educational administrator in Elmore County. Ron and Jeannie have four grandchildren.

Tonight's Emcee - DOUG AMOS

Doug Amos has been involved in sports media in Montgomery for 32 years, having started his career in 1984 as a sportswriter for the Montgomery Advertiser, covering Auburn and Alabama athletics. After five years as a print journalist, Amos began his broadcasting career in 1993, and has co-hosted a sports radio talk show for the past 22 years. In 1995, his show was awarded the Associated Press top broadcasting award for the state of Alabama. In addition to co-hosting The Tailgate Show each weekday with former Auburn quarterback Charlie Trotman on ESPN THE TICKET 107.5 FM in the River Region, Amos is the associate athletic director for media relations and marketing at Faulkner University. He is also the play-by-play voice of Faulkner football, basketball and baseball radio broadcasts on the Faulkner Sports Network. He and his wife, Karla, have a daughter – Reyn, age 7.
